Chehehe // FUTURELICS

Chehehe is an artist and paper maker who has been making art and hand made paper for over 10 years. For this new body of work, he hand carves blocks to make relief prints using recycled paper pulp. By collecting paper waste from a hand full of local businesses, all the materials used to create these artworks is 100% recycled. The artworks will also feature hand finished illustration using Lousy Ink, which is a recycled Artists ink made from printer cartridge waste. The finished works are framed by recycled paper frames, also made by the artist from paper waste.

Nothing is wasted in the process of making this new series of artworks, with any left over pulp being turned into sheets of hand made paper to use for signage and artwork descriptions.

The motifs throughout the show mainly depict an (alien) being from the fictional Planet Chehehe. This beings purpose is to remind you to STAY CREATIVE. The works also feature Chehehes signature line work, as seen in multiple large scale murals around Melbourne. The artworks are meant to evoke a feeling of community, connection and mainly creativity.
